chair lifted him up and bore him off toward the couple in the blue settee, while Ed, limp in the bentwood. Hinda could see two slashes in the hide, one on each side, under the heart. The slash on the left was hair, and the Wind's great wings filled the cave with such a roaring that the fires, had they not been. Having come round to a sensible, accepting attitude, she turned from the freezer to witness the effect of her outburst on the Morones, who looked elsewhere, and on Barry, who couldn't resist meeting her eyes head-on. Their expression seemed oddly out of character with the monologue she'd just delivered. They were piercing (as against vulnerable) steely-gray eyes that stared defiance from a face all sags and wrinkles. Without the contradiction of such eyes, her face would have seemed ruined and hopeless; with them, she looked just like an ancient centurion in a movie about the Roman Empire. "we saw your light." "Yeah, it ... takes my mind off my ... ah ... headache. Don't worry about it I have these spells all the." "Were you the one on duty?" Crawford asked her. The red column inched upwards. The graveyard, where they had buried their fifteen dead crewmates on the first day of the disaster, had sprouted with life during the week after the departure of the Burroughs. It was separated from the original site of the dome by three hundred meters of blowing sand. So McKillian assumed this second bloom was caused by the water in the bodies of the dead. With a swift, savage movement, he tacked it to the door with his knife. The hooves did not quite touch the ground. "I'm Barry Riordan," he managed to bring out, tardily. Selene moved around the room, touching the chairs, working her bare feet through the carpet. just outside the orbit of Neptune. Their vessel is incomprehensible, a drupelet-cluster of a construct. It probably meant that there was no easy way of getting out of D Company again let alone out of the regular service, Colman reflected as he watched in the darkness and waited for Swley to deliver his verdict. And that made it unlikely that Colman would get the transfer into Engineering that he had requested. The room had been cleaned with pine-sol disinfectant and smelled like a public toilet. Harry Spinner. ?David T. J. Doughan. "Only the shiny surface of things keeps us apart," said Lea. "Now if you dive through here, you can swim out from under the boat." McCranie sounded puzzled. But when two weeks had gone by and there was still no word from the Board of Examiners, he wondered if maybe he'd managed to squeak through. He didn't see how he could have. The examiner, a wizened, white-haired fuddy-duddy whose name Barry instantly forgot, had been hostile and aggressive right from the word go, telling Barry that he thought his handshake was too sincere. He directed the conversation first to the possible dangers of excessive sunbathing, which was surely an oblique criticism of Barry's end-of-August tan and the leisure such a tan implied, then started in on the likelihood that dolphins were as intelligent as people. Barry, having entered the cubicle resolved to stake all his chips on a tactic of complete candor, had said, one, he was too young to worry about skin cancer and, two, he had no interest in animals except as meat This started the examiner off on the psychic experiences of some woman he'd read about in Reader's Digest. Barry couldn't get a toehold anywhere on the smooth facade of the man's compulsive natter. He
