"I See You" is the first new Damon Knight story in many years; it was the feature story in FASFs special Damon Knight issue (November 1976). As might be expected, it is a totally fresh piece of work and it shines with quality. Damon says of it: "You may think it is a short story, but it is really a novel on the plan of A for Anything and Hell's Pavement, only much compressed. i. "Well, welcome to the club." With a smile that might as well have been a sheer. "I suppose you're looking for endorsements?" She declined with a smile. "I really should finish unpacking." "Cinderella!" he exclaimed. "Cinderella Johnson! Are you working here?" only get flabby, I'd go mad." She bounced out of the chair and came over to lace her fingers together. So Amos and Jack stood with the sun hi their eyes, and the great blustering North Wind squatted down to look at himself in the mirror. He must have been pleased with what he saw, because he gave a long loud laugh that nearly blew them from the peak. Then he leapt a mile into the air, turned over three tunes, then swooped down upon.
